Clinical Assistant/Associate/Full Professor
Department of Health Services Research, Management and Policy

Applications are being sought for a full-time, non-tenure track faculty position in the Department of Health Services Research, Management and Policy. Applicants at all ranks will be considered. Applicants must have a doctorate in health services research or a relevant, related discipline. A master’s degree in health administration or business is strongly preferred. Duties include participating in research, teaching and mentoring of students, and service to the department. The department has a particular need for faculty that can teach in the department’s Master of Health Administration (MHA) program. Candidates with a strong background in health administration may have an opportunity for an administrative role as the Program Director or Associate Program Director of the MHA Program. This is a full-time (1.00 FTE), 12-month position, expected to start in Summer of 2018.

Health Services Research, Management and Policy is one of eight departments in the College of Public Health and Health Professions. The department offers a Master of Health Administration (MHA) degree program, the Health Services Research concentration within the college’s PhD in Public Health program, and the Public Health Management and Policy concentration within the college’s Master of Public Health program. More information on the department can be found at http://hsrmp.phhp.ufl.edu/.
